STATE RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS

Make Substantial Reductions in the Rates of the Northern California Power Company

The Railroad Commission has rendered a decision making substantial reductions in the rates of the Northern California Power Company, covering a large section of Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Shasta and Tehama counties. This decision follows closely upon the action recently taken by the Commission which resulted in general reductions in lighting rates throughout Southern California. By the terms of its ruling in the Northern California Power case the Commission reduces the maximum lighting rate in Colusa and Glenn counties from 10 cents per kilowatt hour to 7 cents, or approximately 30 per cent; from 9 cents to 7 cents, or 22 per cent in Shasta and Tehama counties, and from 8 cents to 7 cents, or about 12½ per cent, in Butte county.

The reductions went into effect yesterday and will result in lower rates to approximately 5,500 consumers, with a saving, based upon available figures, of approximately $35,000 to $40,000 per year.

The new rates have been established as the result of a long investigation made by the Commission. Several hearings were held and expert analyses made of the rates and financial affairs of the Northern California Power Company.

The decision also calls for a material reduction in the power rates throughout the northern part of the state. The rates established for general, domestic, commercial and other lighting are as follows:

First 20 kilowatts, per month 7c per kilowatt

Next 80 kilowatts, per month, 6c per kilowatt.

Next 400 kilowatts, per month, 5c per kilowatt.

Next 4,500 kilowatts, per month, 4c per kilowatt.

Over 5,000 kilowatts, per month, 3c per kilowatt.

Minimum bill: $1 per month per meter.

Sad Drowning of a little Child.

Peter, the little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jakober, fell into a small creek southwest of town Monday and was drowned. No one witnessed the accident, but it is presumed the little fellow, who had strayed away from home, accidentally stumbled into the creek, where his body was subsequently found by his father.

Coroner Blackburn held an inquest over the remains and the jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

TO GUARD AGAINST RAILWAY ACCIDENTS

A Safety Committee of the Southern Pacific Company Now Meets Every Month for that Humane Purpose

"Trespassing on the railroad right-away is the greatest cause for railroad fatalities," according to the investigations of the Safety Committees on the ten divisions of the Southern Pacific. It has been found that more than fifty per cent of the accidents that occur on this road happen to trespassers.

The Safety Committees on the Southern Pacific were organized last June and since that time every accident of any description has been investigated by the committees and a remedy suggested to prevent a repetition.

Each of the ten divisions of the Southern Pacific has a safety committee that meets once a month to discuss the accidents of the past thirty days. A majority of these accidents are minor, such as smashed fingers and bruised limbs. "Safety First" is the watchword and the particular object of the meetings is to discuss methods of preventing such accidents.

Keeping the slogan "Safety First" uppermost in every employe's mind is a big part of the work of these committees. In the seven months that the safety committees have been in existence on the Southern Pacific hundreds of remedies have been proposed and accepted. Railings have been placed around machinery parts where there had been danger of the clothing of a workman being caught, and the different shops of the company are now equipped with safety devices and such accidents are rare occurrences.

If a trainman walks through the yard and notices a draw-bar or some other heavy piece of metal in the way it is his duty to move, or have it moved, so the next person passing, who may not have such good sight may not fall over it. The safety committee goes after the little things just as earnestly as it goes after the big ones. The employe is cautioned to look out for the interest of his fellow employe as well as himself. The citizen who walks across the right-of-way in order to save a few steps is cautioned to walk where there is no danger.

Cross over the proper crossing. Stop, look and listen before you cross. If these simple rules were followed the annual fatalities on the railroads of the country would be greatly reduced.

THE PASSING OF PIONEER L. L. LEWIS

After a Long and Useful Life He Expired at the Home of His Daughter in Berkeley Last Sunday

The news of the death of L. L. Lewis, which took place at the home of his daughter Mrs. J. . Oliver of Berkeley last Sunday, was a great shock to his many relatives and friends in this valley.

Although 82 years of age the deceased up to within a week or two of his death enjoyed excellent health and notwithstanding his extreme old age was an active business man within a month of his passing away. His activity and mentality were remarkable and few of his fellows in the prime of life were his peers in doing things in the business world.

Years ago he accumulated a comfortable competence in various undertakings in Sacramento and fifteen or twenty years ago he purchased the Nick Carriger ranch near El Verano, since which time he has made his home here.

Mrs. M. E. Murphy of this city is a sister of deceased, and he has many more relatives by marriage residing in this valley.

The Sacramento Union of Monday has this to say about the passing of the aged pioneer:

"A prominent figure in the development of Sacramento passed from the field of human activity Saturday, when L. L. Lewis, who had lived in California since 1854, died at the home of his son-in-law, J. M. Oliver of Berkeley.

Among the notable achievements of Mr. Lewis during his residence in Sacramento was taking the foremost part in the construction of an electric street car line. At that time there were only two other electric street railways in the United States. One of these was at Richmond, Va. Mr. Lewis was also instrumental in bringing about the subdivision of the Oak Park district, and was actively engaged in the hardware business for 40 years.

Mr. Lewis was 82 years of age at the time of his death, and lived in Sacramento until 15 years ago, went he went to live on a large ranch at El Verano. He was born in Genesee county, N. Y., in 1831, about 30 miles from Buffalo. He came to California by the way of Panama, arriving in Sacramento in the fall. As soon as he arrived in Sacramento Mr. Lewis took a position in a local hardware store, acting first as tinner and advancing until 1872 he became proprietor. He also became interested in mining properties in the foothills and other portions of the State. During the Civil War his sympathies were expressed strongly on the Union side.

He was actively engaged in the promotion of building and loan associations in this city and was at one time a director of the Sacramento board of trade. He also took an active part in directing the affairs of improvement organizations of this city.

He was married in 1866 to Miss Lavisa Carriger of Sonoma. He is survived by her and three daughters—Mrs. Ernest Hoen of Sacramento, Mrs. J. M. Oliver of Berkeley and Miss Mabel Lewis of Berkeley.

The funeral will be held at Oakland Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge, of which Mr. Lewis was a member.

SUPERVISORS GRANT LIQUOR LICENSES

Resolution Introduced by Supervisor Harry Weise is Means of Many Hotels in This Valley Continuing in Business

At Monday's session of the Board of Supervisors, Harry Weise Supervisor of this district, introduced a resolution bearing upon the granting of liquor licenses under the Anti-Roadhouse Ordinance. This resolution was adopted unanimously by the Board and under its provisions the following liquor licenses were granted:

L. McCray, E. E. L. Franchi, L. B. Selenger, John Lopus, F. M. Haley, Morris Levy, Boyes Hot Springs, (a corporation); H. P. Trusty, Theodor Richards, E. W. H. Wilson, P. L. Criblet and Geo. Fetters, they having filed affidavits with the county clerk that they were bona fide proprietors of hotels with thirty-five or more rooms.

On filing sworn statements with the county clerk that they were proprietors of bona fide hotels, now under construction, to contain thirty-five or more rooms, liquor licenses were granted H. Koerner, D. J. Crane, Louis Lamotte, Parente Brothers, Philip Rossi and Arthur Mosso of Sonoma Grove.

The Hay Market

Somers & Co. of San Francisco in their bulletin for the week ending January 7th, report the condition of the hay market as follows:

"Receipts of hay continue very light, the total for the week amounting to 1193 tons, just a trifle less than was received the week previous. The demand of late has been so very light locally that shipments have not been ordered forward in any quantity and the light shipments were taking care of all requirements until the last few days, when there has been a rather sudden demand for hay occasioned by the extremely dry and cold weather. These conditions have advanced prices quite materially so that today the range of prices is higher than we quoted last week. The cold north wind has been ruinous to green feed and as a result hay will have to be fed quite extensively in the interior. The effect of the cold and wind on the coming crop will be negligible, providing we have a proper rainfall within the near future, for in most of the farming sections the grain has not yet sprouted and where it has come up, which is principally in the northern part of the State, the grain has been able to withstand the cold and wind thus far and rain will cause the growth to continue unhampered.

"As to future hay conditions, it is impossible to predict the future of the hay market for all will depend on weather conditions. Undoubtedly considerable hay will have to be fed in the interior and should the dry weather continue it will be very difficult for feeders to secure hay, as holders will refuse to sell until they are assured of the coming crop."

Ex-Sheriff Sam I. Allen Dead

Sam I. Allen of Sebastopol, ex-Sheriff of Sonoma County, passed away in that city Sunday, following a stroke of paralysis about three weeks ago. He was a native of Brown County, Ohio, and aged 66 years. The deceased was a prominent Odd Fellow, under the auspices of which order his funeral took place Thursday.

Thirty days on Wedgewood stoves and ranges. It costs nothing to try one. For sale at the Sonoma Valley Furniture Co.

SUPERVISORS ELECT NEW CHAIRMAN

Reorganize by Selecting C. L. Patteson as its Presiding Officer—Supervisors Hart and Austin Retire

The old Board of Supervisors adjourned at 1:20 o'clock last Monday for the last time and Supervisors Thomas J. Hutchinson and Harry J. Weise took their seats, succeeding Herbert W. Austin and Blair Hart.

Little ceremony marked the change. Just as the clock struck 12, Chairman Austin rapped on his desk and declared "the Board of Supervisors of Sonoma county is adjourned." After he had done so he relinquished his desk, and Supervisor Hart did likewise. County Clerk Felt then called for the election of a new chairman, and Supervisor Lyman Green of Petaluma nominated Supervisor C. L. Patteson of Geyserville. The nomination was seconded by Supervisor William King of Cazadero, and the election was made unanimous, there being no other nominations, and the clerk called the roll and declared Chairman Patteson elected.

The new chairman thanked the Board for the honor conferred upon him and said he would fill the position to the best of his ability, after which he declared the Board adjourned until 1:30 p. m. A general handshaking all around then followed.

Supervisor Herbert W. Austin retires after after sixteen years' service as a member of the Board, during eight years of which he has been chairman. He retires with the esteem and good wishes of a wide circle of friends. Mr. Austin is a farmer by occupation and has a good ranch near Melitta.

Supervisor Blair Hart is also a farmer, and his ranch is near Lakeville. He has been a member of the Board of Supervisors for the past twelve years. In retiring to private life, Mr. Hart carries with him the best wishes of all with whom he has come in contact during his term of office.

On motion of Supervisor King, seconded by Supervisor Green, the following resolution was adopted: "I make a motion that a vote of thanks be tendered Mr. Austin and Mr. Hart for their long and faithful service to the county. Both gentlemen have given the best years of their lives to fulfillment of their duties as Supervisors. During their terms of office one of the worst catastrophies that ever happened in the state occurred, viz: the great earthquake of April 18, 1906, which completely destroyed the court house erected in 1884, and in its place now stands one of the most magnificent court houses in the State of California, a building of which every good citizen should feel proud. Gentlemen, for this magnificent building too much praise cannot be extended Chairman Austin and Supervisor Hart."

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES AND HAPPENINGS IN TOWN.

Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity---The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Jesse Burris was in the metropolis Tuesday.

Al. Jassen was here from San Francisco last Sunday.

Carl Rosenthal, the well-known commercial drummer was in town Wednesday.

George Breitenbach made a business trip to the metropolis last Tuesday.

Jack Kelly and Paul Vannucchi transacted business in Santa Rosa last Wednesday.

Ralph Murphy went to Oakland last Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of his uncle, the late L. L. Lewis.

Raymond Castex, son of Mrs. Andre Castex, is spending his vacation with relatives and friends in the metropolis.

O. R. Wagner, the real estate dealer, left for Eden Valley, Mendocino county, Tuesday morning, to inspect the Bigelow cattle range.

A. Beretta, secretary of the Royal Arch of this city, was an interested spectator at Monday's meeting of the Board of Supervisors in Santa Rosa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bigelow were passengers on the Northwestern Pacific railroad Tuesday morning en route to Oakland where they attended the funeral of the late L. L. Lewis.

The six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, residing on Broadway, while playing about the yard of her home fell out of a wagon and striking a sharp piece of glass had her chin badly cut. The wound was sewed up by Dr. Hays and there will be no disfigurement.

Snow fell here Thursday morning.

The people of El Verano as well as Sonoma will be glad to know that the entire staff of the electric light company is making efforts to install El Verano's street lighting system by this (Saturday) evening. Good luck to the El Verano Development Association, which was behind this much-needed improvement.

The roadmasters that have served under Sepervisor Blair Hart showed their appreciation of the kindness and consideration of that official during his term of office Monday when they presented him with a gold double breasted watch chain and Elk tooth charm. The retiring supervisor is very proud of the present, especially so because it comes from his appointees and it being an expression of their good will to him.

Will Give Its First Annual Ball

The El Verano Development Association will give its first annual ball at the Bellevue Hotel on February 22d (Washington's Birthday.) Without a doubt it will be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. The floor will be under the management of Wm. J. Kearney and R. E. Mullen.

A Supervisor of and for the People And His Spiteful Traducers.

J. K. Bigelow's Expositor in last Wednesday's issue inspired by jealousy, hatred and malace and Supervisor Weise's action in voting to grant Fetters' Hot Springs, one of the leading bathing resorts of this valley, a liquor license for its club house, indulges in this spiteful and silly twaddle:

"There is talk all over the valley for the recall of our new Supervisor as he has not only broken faith with the people that supported him on the so-called "dry" side at the recent election, but he has broken faith with the better side of the people in the liquor business. His actions in Santa Rosa on Monday has met with universal disapproval and justified condemnation.

"Mr. Morris Levy, of Glen Ellen, representing the bona fide hotels of this valley, spoke before the Board of Supervisors against the granting of a retail liquor license to the Emma Fetters Resort, and Mr. Weise said that no resort in this valley would bear investigation, and that she was as good as any of them. And upon the motion of Supervisor King, seconded by Mr. Weise, this license was granted to Fetters resort."

We deny the above allegations in toto. There is no "talk all over the valley for the recall of Supervisor Weise," except in the imagination of the Expositor owner and his hired lackeys, but if he wants to recall that official let him go to the bat and attempt it and he will receive the rebuke of his life from the people of this valley who regard him, for the most part, as a joke. Supervisor Weise has not broken faith with any man or set of men and his action at last Monday's meeting of the Board has NOT met with "universal disapproval and justified condemnation," unless Bigelow, in his extreme egotism, considers himself the whole universe and all the people in it.

Nor did "Mr. Morris Levy of Glen Ellen," when he appeared before the Board of Supervisors and spoke against granting a retail liquor license to Fetters' Hot Springs, "represent the bona fide hotels of this valley," as asserted in the above quotation. On the contrary, he represented no one but himself and Bigelow, one of whose lackeys he appeared to be in this matter, and we might here remark that "Mr. Morris Levy" ought to be engaged in better business than pulling down other people's reputations.

Still again, Supervisor Weise did NOT say "that no resort in this valley would bear investigation." What he did say was that "Fetters' Hot Springs was as good as any of them," and he told the truth, too.

In concluding his silly twaddle the Expositor man makes a buffoon of himself by this nonsensical bluff:

"We pledge ourselves to the people to take the necessary steps to FORCE the District Attorney's office to see that the ordinance adopted by the people by an overwhelming vote is not made a farce of."

Force, forsooth! Boo!

Supervisor Weise is Making Good

J. Harry Weise of Glen Ellen, the new member of the Board of Supervisors from this district, who took his seat last Monday, has started in right at the very outset of his career as a public offlcial. His action in favoring the granting of liquor licenses to all those hotels in the county capable of complying with the provisions of the Anti-Roadhouse ordinance proved this and has raised him in the estimation of every fair-minded citizen as being a conscientious official. We are more than pleased to give praise where praise is due in this connection because in the late campaign this newspaper, while not opposing Mr. Weise, did not accord him the support he really deserved, because he was an untried candidate. However, the first week of his incumbency in office goes to prove that he is evidently the right man in the right place and we doff our hat to him.

Reorganization of the State Board of Education

The Bay Section of the California Teachers Association have unanimously endorsed the following reccommendations for reorganizing the State Board of Education, which we think a very wise thing:

One—That the Board should consist of seven members, that it be a non-salaried board; that it be appointed by the governor; and that there be no ex-officio members on the board.

Two—That, at first, appointments be made for the periods of one two, three and four years, in order that the term of all members shall not expire at the same time; and that the constitutional amendment be proposed under which the period of membership of the State Board of Education may be extended beyond four years.

Three—That the State Board shall have power to appoint its own officers, and such professional experts and other employees as may by it be deemed necessary, and as shall have been provided for by the legislature; fix their salaries, and define and assign them their duties; and in making such appoihtments the Board shall be guided only by consideration of the public welfare.

Four—We also recommend that a constitutional amendment be proposed under which the State Supt. of Public Instruction shall become an appointee of the State Board of Education.

Five—That the State Board shall have power to make bylaws for its own government, for the government of its executive officers, experts and other employees.

Six—That the State Board shall have power, and it shall be made its duty, to make investigations regarding all educational matters, and to make recommendations to the schools of the state and to the legislature concerning the same; that the Board shall have power to issue, from time to time, such printed matter as it may deem helpful; that the Board shall present to the legislature a budget, covering the needed expenses of the State Department of Education, and recommendations for such legislation as it may deem necessary; and shall perform all other functions and duties which are now or may hereafter be assigned to it by law

Miss Adele Andrieux, bookkeeper and cashier of John Batto & Sons, spent Monday afternoon in her native city, Sonoma.

Martin Erickson, a well-known citizen of Vineburg, transacted business in the bay city and Petaluma several days this week.

Mr. and and Mrs. Albert Groskopf, Sr., who have been the guests of friends and relatives in in the bay cities for a week, returned home Monday and report a pleasant time.

Miss Lulu Depender, who has been spending the holidays with her mother in Vineburg, will return to Glen Ellen next Monday to resume her duties as teacher of the Glen Ellen school.

Charles Potter has been appointed roadmaster of this district. If Mr. Potter makes as good a one as Eddie Johannsen there will be no cause to complain. But of course that remains to be seen.

A. A. Rice, who recently purchased twenty acres of land on the Groskopf ranch, will shortly begin to improve it. His son-in-law, late of Los Angeles, also intends to locate in this vicinity when he finds a place that suits him.

Harry Kizer, our local merchant, made a business trip Tuesday to the bay city. Some one said that he nearly missed the train, but that is not so, for the train would not wait long enough for handsome Harry to fix his necktie and collar, but believe me, he got there just the same. Leave it to Harry.

At a recent surprise party that took place in this vicinity not long ago two young society Tights entered in a cake eating contest. One was from Schellville and the other from Vineburg. The Tight from Vineburg won out, but he says the next time he tries to commit suicide heis going to take a bath in banana specials.

We understand that sometime between now and April a fancy notion and dry goods also a drug store will open in Vineburg. Some people say it will not pay but that is nothing. They said the same of our two blacksmith shops but I notice both are making good alright.

Enrico Forni, proprietor of the Pleasant Villa and one of the most enterprising citizens in this part of the valley for the past twenty one years, had his license renewed Monday and will resume business the same as usual and will comply with all the requirements of the new law. It is the intention of the this gentleman to retire from business as soon as he can secure a responsible party to rent this well known resort.

Messrs. John and Louis Picetti, the well-known Sonoma furniture merchants, visited Batto's spur Wednesday in their automobile.

The cold spell of weather that we have experienced here for some time past was somewhat modified by the rain storm Wednesday.

Sunday was a very quiet day in this burg as the weather was rather cold and there was no place to keep warm, but we guess it will not happen again.

Fred Batto made his regular business trip to San Francisco Monday as he has for a number of years and says it was the coldest day he ever felt in the bay city.

Miss Mary Batto, after spending the holidays with her parents, returned to San Francisco Friday last, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs August Figone.

Louis Rouquie and Carl Weishaar, two of our expert gun shots, spent Monday in the tules and the feathers flew and so did the ducks. Score, Rouquie 4, Weishaar 5. Not so bad.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Rubke (nee Louise Weber) called on the couple Monday evening and were well entertained by the genial station agent and his charming young bride. A pleasant evening was spent. About twenty were present and all wished the young couple much joy and future happiness.

S. P. Safety Block System Averts Railway Disaster

The south-bound afternoon passenger train of the Southern Pacific Company on Tuesday afternoon last avoided what might have been a bad railroad disaster by the signal block system of that company.

While the train was speeding along at a thirty-five or forty mile an hour clip, the cars were suddenly brought to a standstill on the other side of Schellville owing to a broken rail near Buchli, several miles distant. The rail had been broken by the intense cold and the block system warned the train crew miles ahead of the broken rail. The train was then allowed to creep along at a snail's pace until the broken rail was located and repaired to allow the train to pass over in safety. The mishap caused the train to reach San Francisco an hour and forty minutes behind the schedule time, but had it not been for the superb signal block system of the road many of tke passengers mayhap would never have lived to reach their destination at all. So all took the delay good naturedly.

Valentine Carnival

Owing to the early beginning of Lent, the entertainment to be given by the Library Trustees to raise funds for furnishing the new Carnegie library building has been set for Tuesday, Feb. 4, instead of Feb. 14, St. Valentine's Day. The chief feature of the entertainment, however, will be the sale of valentines and various numbers of the program will be appropriate to the occasion.

The Trustees are hard at work devising attractive and amusing novelties. There will be a post-office for the delivery of the messages of love; booths for the sale of candy and other refreshments; interesting musical and other specialties; the program to be followed by two hours or more of dancing.

The Trustees will need between $400 and $500 for the furnishing of the Library and for other expenses not included in the building contract. Every citizen of the town and valley should consider it not merely a duty but a privilege to help in every way possible to make this a complete success. The tickets will be ready at an early date, and the Trustees hope to have an army of volunteer canvassers to sell them. As the Library is especially an institution for the benefit of the young of the whole valley, all school children are urged to a sist, and as a spur to their interest, the Trustees will give prizes to those that make the largest sales.

Items Gleaned by our Live Awake Reporter the Past Week

L. Chapman of Kelseyville is visiting his aunt Mrs. M. F. Dower.

Geo. Cobb went to Santa Rosa Wednesday morning to serve as a juryman.

A. J. Higgins, and family of Calistoga are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Higgins.

Chauncey would like to know what made business so quiet the first week of the New Year?

The N. W. P crew have finisned installing the new turntable at the roundhouse. This is a much-needed improvement.

Master Bish of the Hearst Vineyard, who sprained his knee sometime ago, was in town Saturday on crutches and is getting along fine.

Carl Poppe, the popular shipping clerk of Bullock & Jones, the merchant tailors of San Francisco, spent New Years with his parents here.

Mrs. C. C O'Donnell is here looking over her property and is contemplating vast improvements to accommodate her guests next summer.

Chauncey notes everyone looking for some one else's Index-Tribune Friday evening. There is certainly room for more subscribers from Glen Ellen.

The local basket ball team expected to play the Sonoma Athenians last night, but owing to the cold weather and cold feet of the latter it was called off.

Our newly appointed roadmaster D. Schieck is busy this week with his crew changing the course of Sonoma creek opposite the Cook ranch on the O'Donnell road.

At the last meeting of the new Board of Supervisors licenses for the retail sale of liquors were granted to H. P. Trusty, Morris Levy and Harry Wilkins.

The Hard Times Club will give a social dance at the Chauvet Hall this (Saturday) evening, Jan. 11th. Howard Gaige announces this as he has had the hardest time of them all.

E Ranker, our local blacksmith, who has been confined to his home with blood poisoning the past two weeks, is rapidly improving and expects to be back at the forge in about ten days.

The Glen Ellen basket ball team is practicing hard every evening getting in shape for their first game which will be announced later. The boys are being trained by Ben Greeley, St Mary's crack player.

Master Sheppard, who was badly burned by grasping a live wire while playing near the school here some three weeks ago, is now on the improve. Dr. L. H. Francis says the tissues are rapidly mending and skin grafting will be unnecessary.

Mrs. Julius Wegner suffered a serious accident while attending the Catholic church Sunday morning. As she left the above place and was attempting to get into her buggy, she slipped, falling heavily to the ground and breaking her arm just above the wrist.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradly (nee Monahan) returned from their honeymoon last Friday evening. They slipped in much to the chagrin of their friends, unexpected for the present they will reside in a pretty cottage next door to Mrs P. Monahan, the bride's mother

Mr. and Mrs Jack London were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cheffers at a house warming party Sunday evening A sumptuous French dinner was served at 7:30 and between courses Jack filled the bill with his natty wit and humorous stories. All spent a most enjoyable evening

No Use for Male Birds Except When Breeding.

It has been stated on good authority that in allowing male birds to run with their hens the farmers of this country are responsible for the spoiling of eggs each year to the amount of $25,000,000. This is because fertilized eggs, when subject to market conditions, are easily spoiled for table purposes.

An infertile egg very seldom spoils, and will retain its eating qualities almost indefinitely, and no ordinary handling or treatment will seriously affect them. A fertilized egg is subjected for a few hours to a temperature of eighty-five or higher, will have the process of incubation started, and if this is checked by subsequent cooling, the egg will begin to decay and will be unfit for use. There are many ways in which the temperature may be raised to the incubation point. On a hot day in summer several hens may occupy the same nest in rapid succession, the eggs may be exposed to the direct rays of the sun while being taken from the farm to store, or while on truck or platform at the station and sometimes while being held for shipment. Even in winter, if the crate is pushed next to hot steam pipes in an express office or car, the same result will follow, and the eggs will be spoiled

Now, all this difficulty can be avoided by keeping male birds away from hens when the eggs are to be used only for market purposes, thus making sure that the eggs are infertile.

It has been conclusively shown that hens lay as well, are less subject to broodiness, keep their plumage in much better condition, and are perfectly contented, when no male is allowed to run with them. Many of the largest consumers of fresh eggs, who contract for thousands to be delivered daily, insist upon a guarantee that every egg shall be absolutely infertile.

Card of Thanks.

We wsih to extend our sincere thanks to those kind relatives, friends and neighbors, for their many acts of kindnesses during our recent bereavement in the loss of a devoted wife and mother.

Obituary.

Leonidas Lee Lewis passed away at the home of his daughter in Berkeley last Saturday and in his passing his wife and daughters have lost a devoted husband and father and the State one of its most substantial citizens. Mr. Lewis was identified with early mining days in California and in the upbuilding of the State Capital amassed a comfortable fortune. He was a simple and unostentatious man, believing in the cardinal virtues of society and his life was an open book of square dealing and high principle. Mr. Lewis was born in New York state in 1831. He was the son of Timothy Lewis and Mary Olmstead Lewis. His grandfather, also Timothy Lewis, was a soldier of the Revolution.

Leondias Lee, the second son, came to California in 1854 and through his thrift and foresight made considerable money out of various mining properties. While engaged in these pursuits he was married to Lavisa Carriger, daughter of Nicholas Carriger, a pioneer. They then moved to Sacramento where their three daughters, Mabel, Edna Lewis Hoen and Alice Lewis Oliver were all born. Mr. Lewis was in the hardware business in the capitol city and was the builder of the first street railway there.

The funeral took place in Oakland under the auspices of the Masons. He was a member of the Tehama Lodge, No. 3, F. & A. M. of Sacramento.

The services were impressively beautiful and the floral offerings magnificent. Interment was in Mountain View cemetery. "Requiescat en pace."

Old Lady Gored by Vicious Bull

Mrs. J. McLenahan, residing with her husband on the Daly place in the western part of town, was attacked by a vicious bull last Tuesday afternoon and had her left thigh ripped open in a horrible manner. Dr. Hays, who attended the injured lady, reports that she is getting along nicely and no serious results are apt to follow the injury unless blood poisoning may set in, which is very remote.

The Coughs of Children

They may not cough today, but what about tomorrow? Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine at hand. This cough medicine is especially good for children. No anodynes. No alcohol.

Many a child is called dull and stupid when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills, sugar-coated, will do such children a great deal of good. Ask him.

The Sting of a Bee.

An eastern fable tells of a potentate who demanded that there should be brought to him the stings of a thousand bees killed because one of their colony had dared commit lese majesty by stinging the hand of royalty. When they were brought in a tiny golden thimble the king was so amazed to find that a thousand of the hypodermic points made such a little mass that he issued a manifesto to the effect that thereafter no person within the bounds of the kingdom should complain at the sting of a bee. The lesson of the fable is that petty annoyances hurt because they are exaggerated in the mind; that when they are seen in their actual proportions they are so slight as to merit only contempt. How much comfort would come to the majority of persons if they could but see the tiny size of the bee stings that lead them to acts of petulance, words of anger, expressions of reproach. The bee sting annoyances have caused lifelong breaches of friendship. They have broken up families and caused anger and resentment to take the place of love and fealty.—Baltimore American.

The Mississippi of Streets.

A street is like a river, with its human current carrying all manner of drift between its banks of residences or shops on either side. And if this simile be appropriate then New York's Broadway is the Mississippi of streets. Probably no other avenue in the world presents so many contrasts in the flotsam and jetsam it carries from Harlem to the Battery. Every type of humanity—uprooted saplings from farms and orchards, proud hulled craft in silks and satins—may be described in the surging mass. Banker and bootblack, the swaggering swell and the draggled derelict, walk shoulder to shoulder—rush, rather, for Broadway is a maelstrom, the embodiment of New York's bustle and hurry, the place where nothing can stand still. Richard Harding Davis once said that everybody "seems to be trying to reach the bank to have a check cashed before 3 o'clock." — George Seibel in Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Queer Collateral.

"Here is a fact as strange as it is true," said an Egyptologist. "Mummies in ancient Egypt were used chiefly as collateral.

"When an Egyptian wanted to borrow he gave his father's or grandfather's mummy as security. Sometimes, if he required a large sum, he gave his father and both grandfathers, and he would even throw in the mummy of his mother-in-law if she fortunately happened to be in a mummified state.

"Joking aside," the Egyptologist continued, "what I tell you is the truth. An Egyptian was not permitted to borrow without pledging the mummy of some near relative. It was deemed in Egypt both impious and infamous not to redeem so sacred a pledge as that, and he who died with a family mummy still in pawn was himself buried in unconsecrated ground."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Postage Stamp.

Consider the postage stamp. It says nothing regarding the difficulty of the task assigned to it, but by dint of close application it usually gets there; also it delivers the goods.

Again, if one isn't enough to carry the thing through, two or more by working harmoniously together see the thing to a finish.

No matter if the (mail) matter be weighty, it puts a good face (of Washington) on it and goes directly to the point. It gets licked and stamped upon, and men besmirch its fair features and ofttimes give it more to carry than the (postal) union allows. But, in spite of all this, it sticks unflinchingly to the matter in hand by virtue of the fact that it knows that it has good backing.

Its stick-to-it-ivity is worthy of emulation by you.—Judge's Library.

Water Colors.

Water color painting was gradually raised from the hard, dry style of the eighteenth century to its present brilliancy by the efforts of Nicholson, Copley, Sanley and others. The Water Color society's exhibitions began in 1805 and may be said to mark the real beginning of modern water color painting. The great master, if not creator of the art was the celebrated Turner, of whom we read so much in the works of John Ruskin. Exchange.

How Old They Were.

"I see you employ a number of old men."

"I do."

"How old are they?"

"Too old to be interested in canoeing or mandolins or race horses or girls or tennis. That makes them fine for work."—Washington Herald.

Rather.

The subjoined item appeared in a French newspaper:

"There was found in the river this morning the body of a soldier cut to pieces and sewed up in a sack. The circumstances seem to preclude any suspicion of suicide."

Customs and Habits.

Our customs and habits are like the ruts in roads. The wheels of life settle into them, and we jog along through the mire because it is too much trouble to get out of them.
